He could recall no order in the Infantry Drill Regulations for getting eight men abourd a big gray truck in a military way. They were already in squad formation, so he cogitated that he couldn't very well order them to "Fall in," as they were already all in; then on second thought he imagined that "Fall in" was just the word, if he only marched reached the truck came the order from the rookle corporal, "Fall in!" Being, fallen in, the men were nonn to how to fall in any further. It didn't occur to them to tumble into the truck, and being up against the wheels and thinking the corporal really meant "Halt!" they all came to standstill, The rookle "noncom" scratched his head and thought. In Quebec the chief crop is hay. The area devoted to its cultivation in 1915 was estimated to be about 3,000,000 acres, and much of it was exported at high prices. About 1,400,000 acres were sown to cats, and the crop was an excellent one, both as to quantity and quality, high prices being realized for the estimated yield of about 44,000,000 bushels harvested. Little barley is raised in Quebec, but the area of about $5,000 acres produced in the neighborhood of 312,000 bushels and brought good prices. The wheat grown in the province is all of the spring wheat variety. The total crop in 1915 was estimated at 1,447,000 bushels, an Increase of nearly 500,000 bushels over
